

3. A Weed is a Wildflower

Workshopped by members of Salford Cathedral Girls' Choir
Words and music by Hannah King

What's in a name? A simple switch of title
Can change the way we frame the narrative.

Take the weed:
Unwanted, invasive, annoying,
The perfect garden destroying.

But the wildflower?
Resilient, wanted and free,
The perfect garden for me.

Wild and free, wildflower.
Lovely and sweet, wildflower.
Resilient and vibrant,
Reminding us all how to be.
Wild and free, wildflower.
Lovely and sweet, wildflower.

A weed is a wildflower, is a whispered wish.
A weed is a wildflower, is a welcoming wave.
A weed is a wildflower, is a wisp, a wing, a way,
Is a rainbow to wake up the grey.

Parts 1 & 2

A weed is a wildflower, is a whispered wish.
A weed is a wildflower, is a welcoming wave.
A weed is a wildflower, is a wisp, a wing, a way,
Is a rainbow to wake up the grey.

Part 3

Wild and free, wildflower.
Lovely and sweet, wildflower.

All

Wildflower.
