Sing for Project Thanksgiving

The Cathedral parish choirs are putting together a video reflecting on the last three years of our journey as a Cathedral Parish with the music as a backdrop and we would like parishioners to be involved.

We are inviting members of the Cathedral congregation to join our Cathedral Choirs and Music Group to sing a new piece of music written by our Director of Music, Alex Patterson, as part of Project Thanksgiving. The new piece is a setting of the hymn 'Through the night of dark and sorrow' and includes Martin Barry's 'Stay with us, Lord, on our journey'.

The recording will take place on Sunday 1 March from 1.30pm - 3.30pm in the Temporary Church.

To be involved, please email alex.patterson@dioceseofsalford.org.uk or speak to him after Mass.

DIOCESAN NOTICES

Racial Justice Sunday—8th February 2026

What is Racial Justice Sunday?

Racial Justice Sunday is an annual event observed across Christian churches in the UK to promote awareness of racial inequality and celebrate the dignity of all people.

Racial Justice Sunday was initiated originally by the Methodist Church following the tragic racially motivated murder of Stephen Lawrence in 1993. The Lawrence family, members of a local Methodist Church, received support from the Church in their campaign for justice.

Later, the Churches' Commission for Racial Justice (CCRJ), a programme of Churches Together in Britain and Ireland, expanded Racial Justice Sunday for wider Christian engagement and it is now widely valued as a collaborative ecumenical effort to promote racial justice.

Racial justice is not an optional concern but flows directly from Catholic Social Teaching – particularly the principles of human dignity, solidarity, and the common good. Racism undermines each of these, distorting relationships and denying the truth that every person is made in the image of God.
